Wanted.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower, for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Liver Trouble that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost.
If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you.
The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Eosin's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents.—W. T.

POPE LEO XIII. WORSE.

His Condition is Considered to Be Alarming.

Physicians Are Well Nigh Exhausted
With Their Unceasing Care—About 26,000 Dispatches Received at the Vatican.

London, July 16.—A dispatch from Rome timed 6:50 a. m. Thursday says the pope passed a restless night and that his condition Thursday morning was considerably worse.

One of the doctors in attendance on the pontiff gave a press correspondent a word picture of Pope Leo as he appeared Wednesday. That smile which lighted up the pontiff's face, even in extreme age, has disappeared, probably forever. The skin is drawn tightly over the bony framework of his face, leaving the once bright eyes staring dimly from the deeply sunken sockets.
A grayish pallor overspreads his countenance but the most noticeable ravage wrought by his present disease is the drooping of the lower jaw, which has made the pope's features take on the fixed rigidity of death.

In marked contrast to previous days the patient was kept in almost absolute seclusion, only one person besides the physicians in immediate attendance gaining admission. This one was Mgr. Pifferr, the pope's confessor.
Others came to the ante-chamber, including Cardinals Satolli and Serafino Vannutelli, but they did not press for admission to the sick room, knowing of the doctors' earnest wishes to afford the patient every opportunity of avoiding exertion and mental effort.

During the day the pope took a small amount of nourishment.
Through the morning he was restless, shifting uneasily on his bed and complaining of inability to secure an easy position. Later he became drowsy and during the afternoon had some sleep.

Wednesday evening his holiness complained of a slight uneasiness in the chest, but that he has not yet completely given up hope was indicated by his remark that he expected the oppression on his chest to pass off in a few days.

The total number of dispatches inquiring about the pope's health received at the vatican Wednesday reached 26,000, including some long cables from half round the world. The total cost of these telegrams is estimated at $36,000. This enormous deluge taxes to the utmost the resources of the vatican administration. A large force of priests and seminarians is temporarily aiding the officials in making responses, which bear the signature of Cardinal Rampolla.

MRS. BLAINE PASSED AWAY.

Widow of the Famous Statesman Died Wednesday Morning.

Augusta, Me., July 16.—Mrs. James G. Blaine died Wednesday morning.
Mrs. Blaine was the widow of the famous Maine statesman, and her death was due to old age and general breakdown. She was nearly 75 years of age, and had been in failing health for three years.

The funeral will be held at 4 o'clock on Saturday in Augusta and burial will be in Washington on Monday.

the chances for recovery are against him.

rick Hill Took Place.

Belfast, Ireland, July 14.—The pro-men and civilians were injured. Strong reinforcement of police restored order. Similar rioting occurred at Carrick Hill.

The Manchurian Ports.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—According to the newspaper Novikrai, published at Port Arthur, Russia has informed China that she is compelled to exclude foreigners from Manchuria and postpone the opening of Manchurian ports owing to the presence of Englishmen and Americans, who, in disguise, are engaged in espionage. Russia, according to the paper, promises to open the ports six years hence, when the country has been tranquilized and settled.

FOR AN OLD MURDER.

A Mob Hangs a White Man at Flemingsburg, Ky.

Flemingsburg, Ky., July 16.—Enraged at the failure of the courts to deal out justice, a mob broke into the Flemingsburg jail Wednesday morning and hanged William Thacker, a white man, who was given a life sentence to the penitentiary for the murder of John Gordon two years ago.
Thacker was a well-known character in this neighborhood, and was always considered a dangerous man. In a quarrel with Gordon at Foxport he shot and killed him, and then, with brutal bravado, sat on the body. Winchester, in hand, while he smoked his pipe, and dared anyone to attempt to arrest him. At the time he made his escape, but was later arrested and lodged in jail at Flemingsburg. He was given two trials and finally was given a life sentence for the murder, although it was proven that he had no sufficient provocation for the deed, and that Gordon was a good citizen and an inoffensive man. After being sentenced he appealed the case to the court of appeals, and was waiting for it to pass on his case.

Thacker had some money and was able to command the support of some wealthy and influential men, and it was feared that he might escape the punishment of his crime altogether.
In order to prevent this a mob gathered, which, it is claimed, was composed of some of the best citizens of the county. They came into town by twos and threes, in order not to arouse suspicion, the fear that resistance might be made by Thacker's friends. When they had completed their arrangements they advanced up to the jail, arriving shortly after midnight. The jailer was aroused, but refused to surrender the keys, whereupon he was overpowered and the keys taken from him. Thacker was hurried to a tree near the jail and was given a moment in which to say his prayers, which he refused to do, but begged for mercy and for his life.
To hush his cries he was hit on the head with a rock and his unconscious body strung up until life had become extinct. The mob dispersed, after watching Thacker until it was certain that he was dead.

THE PILGRIMS CLUB.

An Effort to Be Made to Erect a Washington Statue in London.

London, July 16.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Pilgrims club Wednesday night a committee was appointed to give effect to a recent suggestion to erect a statue to George Washington in London. It was decided that the subscriptions should be entirely confined to British subjects. Archdeacon Sinclair, in submitting the plan to the society, said:
"Englishmen have at last fully recognized the great qualities of Washington. I feel assured that nothing would be more popular in this country than such a tribute to that great man of English birth, who has done so much for the world's history, not only for the young nation across the sea, but for Great Britain as well."

Archdeacon Sinclair announced that he was authorized to offer a place for the statue in St. Paul's cathedral.

small islands, which, it is said, belong to Great Britain, and had planted the American flag on them. It is probable that a question on the subject will

RIOTING IN CHICAGO.

Desperate Fight Between the Police and Rioters.

A Howling Mob Pelted the Officers With Bricks and Sticks—Police Opened Fire on the Crowd With Their Revolvers.

Chicago, July 16.—Desperate fighting between the police and the strikers of the Kellogg Switchboard Supply Co. took place Wednesday afternoon and evening, when the company attempted to send freight to some of the railroad depots. In one instance the police opened fire with revolvers and although the fusillade was continued for several minutes, nobody was injured. Later there was a fight in which no revolvers were used and the police beat down a number of men, some of whom were left in the street until their friends came back to pick them up.

The first fight occurred when a truck loaded with freight, escorted by policemen, bound for the Burlington depot, was passing an unfinished building at the corner of Harrison and Peoria streets. A howling mob of a thousand men and boys was following close on the police and pelting them with stones and sticks. Teamsters, who sympathized with the strikers, managed to get their wagons in the way of the Kellogg company's wagon as it reached Peoria street and occasioned a blockade. The police were endeavoring to clear the street when the workmen of the unfinished building showered them with bricks.

The officers at once drew their revolvers and fired at the workmen, who hastily fled to the interior of the building. The police kept up their fire through the windows and drove nearly all the workmen from the place.

The route to the depot was then taken up and although there were several blockades, the wagon reached the depot and delivered goods.

The second fight occurred when the police were escorting a wagon load of freight to the warehouse of the Terminal Transfer Co. A mob, fully 3,000 strong, followed this wagon, and although the police were outnumbered 100 to 1, they took the wagon safely to the depot. The mob had greatly increased by the time the wagon was ready to make the return trip, and for half a mile pursued the police applying to them all sorts of epithets and pelting them with sticks and stones, without, however, injuring any person seriously.

The climax came at Congress street and Ogden avenue, where a private watchman, who had no particular call to mix in the trouble on either side, fired at one of the mob. The shot went wild, but it infuriated the mob to the highest degree and with-shouts and yells they charged on the police.
The latter were waiting for the crowd and when it arrived the officers went at it with fists and clubs. The patrolmen were greatly outnumbered, but they fought well together, and in less than three minutes every member of the mob who could use his feet was doing so to the best of his ability.
Fully a dozen men with broken heads were left lying in the streets where they had been knocked by the clubs of the officers. Some of them were loaded into the wagon and taken to the police station, as were a number who were not quick enough in beginning their retreat. About 20 arrests were made during the day.

THE BOODLE CASE.

Julius Lehmann Convicted and Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

St. Louis, July 16.—The jury in the case of Julius Lehmann, former member of the house of delegates, charged with bribery in connection with the passage of the city lighting bill, returned a verdict Wednesday afternoon finding the defendant guilty. His punishment was fixed at seven years in the penitentiary, the longest term yet inflicted in any of the boodle cases.

Soon after the verdict had been returned Lehmann gave bond in the sum of $15,000 and his attorneys gave notice of appeal. Lehmann was convicted on May 17, 1902, on a charge of perjury before the December grand jury of 1901, which inquired into boodle matters, and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. The case was taken on appeal to the supreme court and is now pending.

arrest on the charge of eloping with a well, Ida., shot and killed the girl and left a widow and two children.

Home Duties

The real heroines of every day are in our homes. Frequently, however, it is a mistaken and useless heroism.

Women seem to listen to every call of duty except the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. How much harder the daily tasks become when some derangement of the female organs makes every movement painful and keeps the nervous system unstrung?
Irritability takes the place of happiness and amiability; and weakness and suffering takes the place of health and strength. As long as they can drag themselves around, women continue to work and perform their household duties. They have been led to believe that suffering is necessary because they are women. What a mistake!

The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will banish pain and restore happiness. Don't resort to strong stimulants or narcotics when this great strengthening, healing remedy for women is always within reach.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. E. Pinkham. No man will see your letter. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had.
She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health.
Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

For proof read the symptoms, suffering and cure recited in the following letters:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express to you the great benefit I have derived from your advice and the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My trouble was female weakness in its worst form and I was in a very bad condition. I could not perform my household duties, my back ached, I was extremely nervous, and I could not eat or sleep, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. My husband spent hundreds of dollars to get me well, and all the medicine that the doctors prescribed failed to do me any good; I resorted to an operation which the physician said was necessary to restore me to health, but I suffered more after it than I did before; I had hemorrhages of the womb that nothing could seem to stop.

"I noticed one of your advertisements and wrote you for advice. I received your reply and carefully followed all instructions. I immediately began to get stronger, and in two weeks was about the house. I took eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and continued following your advice, and to-day I am a well woman. Your remedies and help are a Godsend to suffering women, and I cannot find words to thank you for what you have done for me."—MRS. LOTTIE V. NAYLOR, 1328 N. J.
Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.

"I was suffering with falling of the womb and could hardly drag about, but after taking five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was completely cured. I am now a well woman and able to do all my work.

"I think your medicine one of the best remedies in the world."—Mrs.
J. M. LEE, 141 Lyndal St., Newcastle, Pa.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done a great deal for me. I suffered so much from falling of the womb and all the troubles connected with it. I doctored for years with doctors and other remedies but received only temporary relief.

"I began taking your medicine, and had not taken it long before I was feeling better. My husband said that I should keep right on taking it as long as it gave me relief from my suffering, as I could not expect to be cured by one or two bottles. I did so and am now able to be on my feet and work hard all day, and go to bed and rest at night. Thanks to your Vegetable Compound I am certainly grateful for the relief it gave me. It is the mother's great friend. I would not be without it in my house, for when I feel tired or out of sorts I take a few doses and feel all right.

"I would recommend your medicine to all tired mothers, and especially to those suffering as I was."—MRS. R. F. CHAMBERS, Bennet, Neb.
